

BANKER THALMANN MEETS 31 TO CHOOSE A NEW POPE

It Is Expected Selection Will Be Made by September 3 or 4—Body of Pius X. Is Entombed in St. Peter's After Being Viewed by Thousands.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.
Rome, Aug. 22.—The conclave of Cardinals to elect a successor to Pope Pius X. will convene on August 31. The announcement was made today by Cardinal Chamberlain Della Volpe. It is generally believed that the Cardinals will be able to decide on a new Pope in about four days. There have been occasions when the Cardinals spent weeks in casting fruitless ballots before a choice was made.

The body of Pope Pius was entombed in three caskets this afternoon, and at 6 o'clock entombed in St. Peter's with full ceremonies. For seven days there will be solemn and elaborate masses.

With the singing of psalms by the choir the late Pope's body was carried from the chapel of the Sacrament to the choir chapel and, after being wrapped in a red coverlet, was placed first in a coffin of cypress wood. Into this coffin as well as placed, according to custom, a purse filled with gold, silver and copper coins representing the number of years the Pontiff lived, and a metal cylinder containing a brief history of the Pope.

The cypress coffin was placed then in one of lead, which in turn was placed in one of oak. The oak coffin is decorated with the cross and the coat of arms of the Pope and other pontifical emblems.

To-night the body rests in a niche to the left of the choir chapel, where it will remain until the permanent tomb is prepared.

Twenty-three Cardinals met last evening and arranged for the temporary government of the Church until a new Pope is elected.

These Cardinals after taking the oath to maintain secrecy "even to the shedding of blood" performed the traditional ceremony of breaking the fisherman's ring. The ring was not literally performed, however, because none of the Cardinals had the strength to break the ring, even though a hammer was employed. According to the rules of the Sacred College, the ring should be broken and then reset and presented to the new Pope. As this could not be done it was scratched instead.

The Pope's testament, it was learned, provides for the maintenance of about forty children who were made orphans by the earthquake at Messina and Calabria in 1908.

The Pope's sister Anna, who collapsed after his death, is still going ahead.

The plan to have the warring nations of Europe declare a truce while a new Pope is being elected is still going ahead.

PAPAL REQUIEM IN CATHEDRAL.

Apostolic Delegate Will Be Celebrant at St. Patrick's.

Services in St. Patrick's Cathedral are to be held at the same hour as the funeral services of Pope Pius X. in Rome next Friday or Saturday.

The Most Rev. John Bonzano, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, will be the celebrant of the pontifical high requiem mass. The sermon will be preached by the Right Rev. Thomas F. Cusack.

Mr. Joseph F. Mooney, administrator of the Roman Catholic archdiocese in the United States, will officiate at the requiem mass yesterday with the papal delegate, who lives in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Breaking all Washington records for early rising in officialdom, President Wilson took an auto ride at 5 o'clock today, returning shortly before 10. The city, scorched by the heat, and cool and comfortable in the early hours of the morning and the President called his trip into the Virginia country his vacation which his official physician has been urging him to do. Because he believed he could not spare time for a real vacation the President refuses to leave the city for any length of time. Returning from his spin the President conceived a plan to make his vacation at the White House proper. He followed his usual Saturday custom of not making any business engagement.

POLO PLAYER BADLY HURT.

John A. Rawlins Has Serious Fall at Meadow Brook Club.

HEMPSTEAD, Aug. 22.—John Armstrong Rawlins, one of the best known polo players in the country, was seriously injured this afternoon on the Meadow Brook polo grounds when he was thrown from his pony during a practice game. Mr. Rawlins, who has not been playing much polo this season, was at top speed and leaping over to make a long drive when his pony's net struck his mallet, and rider and pony struck the ground with such force that Mr. Rawlins was knocked unconscious.

All efforts to revive him were unsuccessful at the Nassau Hospital at Mineola up to a late hour he had not regained consciousness. Dr. John G. Mann of Westbury and Dr. Green of Manhattan had not announced the extent of his injuries.
